

NEW WORLD CITY INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

2019 INTERNATIONAL STUDENT INTERNSHIPS

Dedicated to a better Brisbane

Apply now for international student internships

Brisbane City Council is committed to supporting Brisbane's international students from our nine Sister Cities through the New World City Internship Program. This program will provide 10 students, who are enrolled in a bachelor's degree or higher, with the opportunity to gain valuable degree-related experience with Brisbane-based businesses through a four-week paid internship program.

Industry sectors

A range of Brisbane-based businesses will host students during their internship. Industry sectors involved in the program may include aviation, digital and technology, education and training, health and aged care, media, professional services, tourism and hospitality, and trade and investment development.

Internship dates

The four-week internships will take place from 4 February to 1 March 2019.

How to apply

Interested students should visit Council's website to check the eligibility criteria and complete the online application form.

Applications close on Friday 9 November 2018.
