

Program Title	Shinshu Health Science World (SHSW) 2020
Outline	Shinshu University provides overseas Health Science students with the opportunity to experience Health Science research and advanced clinical practice in Japan.
Aims	The School of Health Sciences, Shinshu University aims to nurture future medical staff who can contribute to society with a global perspective. Thus, this program sets out the following objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. as a means of international contribution, Shinshu University provides the opportunity to experience Japanese biomedical laboratory practices for overseas health science students, 2. Shinshu University Health Science students and their overseas counterparts will inspire each other through interactive communication in English, and develop their global viewpoints, 3. Shinshu University provides both overseas students and our doctors and students with the opportunity to increase their knowledge in different aspects of health science education and systems in other countries, 4. Both overseas students and members of Shinshu University can utilize the international environment of this program to improve their communication and language skills.
Training contents	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Introductory training for Japanese conversation 2. Introductory lecture on health science and education system in Japan 3. Specialized training at designated course 4. University Hospital tour 5. Visit to training facilities 6. Discussions in English about various health science matters with Shinshu University doctors and health science students 7. Cultural exchange activities with Shinshu University health science students
Specialized Training	Division of Medical Technology
Duration of training	1 week (5 days)
Term (Application deadline)	Monday, November 9 – Friday, November 13, 2020	Deadline: Friday, April 24, 2020
Number of participants	Maximum 4 students
Eligibility	It is preferable that participants will be/are in the second or third academic year of their Medical Laboratory Science and Biotechnology studies.
Criteria for selection	Recommendation of the home institution, academic records, and the suitability of personal qualities and interests in the program
Application	Applicants need to submit the following documents No. 1 – 6 via their home institutions to International Relations, School of Medicine, Shinshu University, by application deadline for the initial screening: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Application form (Form 1) *Applicants need to state their motivation for each department of their choice. 2. Certificate of Health_Shinshu U (Form 2) 3. Statement of Financial Responsibility (Form 3) 4. Passport copy 5. Recommendation letter from the Dean of the home institution 6. Transcript of academic records *Late submission or incomplete application will not be screened. After receiving a conditional offer of training, expected participant needs to submit No. 7 within 2 weeks. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 7. A copy of health and liability insurance certificate (it must cover medical fees and compensation costs claimed during his/her stay in Japan) *Failure to submit this will cause the cancellation of his/her training at Shinshu University.
Certification	Successful participant receives Certificate of Training on his/her final training day.
Fees	Shinshu University does not charge registration or training fees. Personal expenses such as travel, accommodation, and food must be paid by the individual or home institutions
Accommodation	Participants can be accommodated in Asahi Kaikan (university guest house) on the Matsumoto Campus during their training (from registration on Monday to check out on Saturday). Payment must be made in cash and not refundable. 3,000 JPY per person per night. If Asahi Kaikan might not be available, participants will be required to arrange accommodation for themselves.	