

Nagasaki University Japanese Language and Culture Program (JLCP)

Application Guidebook

1. Brief Outline of the Program

JLCP provides an opportunity to learn Japanese language and culture at the Center for Japanese Language and Student Exchange, Nagasaki University. The objectives of this program are to improve participants' Japanese language skills, enrich their knowledge of Japanese culture, and deepen mutual understanding between international students and Japanese students.

Based upon the Memorandum of Understanding on Student Exchange and Academic Cooperation Agreement between Nagasaki University and partner universities, JLCP is classified into two courses depending on tuition paying type. There are "Non-Fee-Paying Course" and "Fee-Paying Course", and "Fee-Paying Course" will be applied when the number of exchange students exceeds the number written in the Memorandum.

2. Eligibility

Applicants of JLCP must be regular students who are currently enrolled at the partner universities of Nagasaki University. They must also satisfy the following requirements:

- 1) Applicants' major or minor field of study must be Japanese language and culture. If not, their main purpose of the study abroad must be learning Japanese language and Japanese culture.
- 2) Applicants must be recommended by the partner university of Nagasaki University.
- 3) Applicants must have passed N3 or higher level of Japanese-Language Proficiency Test (JLPT), or equivalent test score to JLPT N3 level.
- 4) Applicants must have achieved academic excellence in their home university.
- 5) As a general rule, applicants must have non-Japanese nationality.

3. Duration

Fall Semester Entry

[One year] From the end of September to the end of September of the following year

[Six months] From the end of September to the end of March of the following year

Spring Semester Entry

[One year] From the beginning of April to the end of March of the following year

[Six months] From the beginning of April to the end of September

Study period shall be within one academic year. In principle, participants whose duration is six months may extend the length of his or her study period for another six months upon the approval of both Nagasaki University and his or her home university.

4. Number of Students to Be Accepted

Approximately 50 students in each semester (Non-Fee-Paying Course: about 30, Fee-Paying Course: about 20) will be accepted. Please note that its number may vary depending on the number of registered students. For further information, please contact us at ryugaku_shien@ml.nagasaki-u.ac.jp (Japanese, English, Chinese and Korean available).
