

KMU's breast cancer researches on <Nature>

Since 2007, KMU team and Academia Sinica have organized researches on the genes of breast cancer. Now they have confirmed 150 sites with possibility of genetic mutations. The results were published in <Nature> on November, 2017.

Nursing professor honored with the American Academy of Nursing

Prof. Kuei-Min Chen of KMU was honored for her outstanding works in the reflection of nursing profession, receiving the 2017 Amy J. Berman Geriatric Nursing Leadership Award, and selected the fellow of American Academy of Nursing.

KMU graduate Yu-Ping Chang, PhD, named the first Nursing Patricia H. and Richard E. Garman Professor of the University at Buffalo School

KMU alumna of the Nursing Department of KMU, Dr. Yu-Ping Chang, was named the first Nursing Patricia H. and Richard E. Garman Professor of the University at Buffalo School. "Dr. Chang best exemplifies the wishes of the Garman family to support the enhancement of research endeavors in nursing." said by Prof. Marsha Lewis, School of Nursing, UB.

